KENNY BRITT

WIDE RECEIVER • 6'3" • 215 lbs • COLLEGE: RUTGERS
ACQUIRED: 1ST ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: BAYONNE, N.J.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 31/15 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

PRO: Wide receiver Kenny Britt provides an explosive element to the team's passing game with his combination of size, speed and catching ability. He is considered one of the team's building blocks at the offensive "skill" positions, alongside a pair of the team's other first-round draft picks: rookie quarterback Jake Locker and fourth-year running back Chris Johnson. In Britt's first two seasons (2009–2010), he led the team with a total of 1,476 receiving yards and tied for the team lead with 12 touchdown receptions. In that period of time, he ranked sixth in the NFL with a 17.6-yard receiving average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- With 701 receiving yards as a rookie and 775 yards in 2010, Britt became the first Titans/Oilers player since Chris Sanders (1995–1996) to lead the squad in receiving yards in each of his first two seasons.
- From Sept. 26–Oct. 24, 2010, Britt caught at least one touchdown pass in five consecutive games, tying for the second-longest streak in franchise history.
- Britt recorded one of the best receiving games in franchise annals against the Eagles on Oct. 24, 2010, when he caught seven passes for 225 yards and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked fifth in team history.
- In 2009, his rookie receiving yardage total (701 yards) ranked fifth in franchise rookie history and was the highest by a Titans rookie receiver since Chris Sanders' 823 yards in 1995.
- Among the 2009 NFL rookie class, Britt was seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in receptions (42), and he was fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC in receiving yards (701).
- Britt provided one of the most dramatic endings to an NFL game in 2009 with a 10-yard, game-winning touchdown reception on fourth down as time expired against the Arizona Cardinals (11/29/09).
- In pre-draft workouts in 2009, Britt was timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.5 seconds and displayed a 37-inch vertical jump.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Prior to the 2009 NFL Draft, Britt spent extensive time training with former Denver Broncos wide receiver Rod Smith, who totaled more than 11,000 receiving yards during his career.
- When the Titans used the 30th overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft on him, Britt became the first Rutgers player ever to be drafted in the first round.
- Even though he has two NFL seasons under his belt, Britt is still one of the youngest players on the team's roster. He was born on Sept. 19, 1988.
- The son of Jack Britt and Michelle Johnson, Kenny also was influenced heavily throughout his youth by his uncle, Rev. Alex C. Britt. Kenny was heavily involved in his uncle's Newark congregation, the Church of the Living Water, and even moved in with the reverend and his wife, Donalda, prior to his junior year at Rutgers.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Bayonne (bay-OWN), N.J., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (30th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2011 (3/3): Started the first three games at wide receiver and registered 17 receptions for 289 yards and three touchdowns. Was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 28, 2011 after suffering a season-ending knee injury against Denver (9/25/11). Has amassed 100 or more receiving yards in six career games, including twice in 2011 (at JAX, vs. BAL). Led the team in receiving yards twice in 2011 (at JAX, vs. BAL). Led the team in receptions once in 2011 (vs. BAL). Britt's 271 receiving yards over the first two weeks of the season were the second most in franchise history through first two weeks, behind only Charley Hennigan, who had 347 in 1962.

- At Jacksonville (9/11), started at wide receiver and led the team with 136 receiving yards on five receptions, including two touchdowns catches. Hauled in a shovel pass from Matt Hasselbeck and raced 80 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. Snared a 25-yard reception along the left sideline in the fourth quarter. Pulled the Titans within two points at 16-14 with an acrobatic two-yard touchdown catch in the left corner of the end zone with 3:34 remaining in the fourth quarter.
- Against Baltimore (9/18), started at wide receiver and snared a career-best nine receptions for 135 yards with a touchdown. Hauled in a 37-yard completion from Matt Hasselbeck late in the opening stanza. Extended the Titans' initial scoring drive with a nine-yard reception on third-and-five in the second quarter. Kept the Titans' first touchdown drive alive with a six-yard catch on third-and-one in the second quarter. Gave the Titans a 10-7 advantage with a four-yard touchdown reception with 40 seconds remaining in the first half. Converted a key third-and-eight with a leaping 28-yard reception over the middle in the fourth quarter.
- Against Denver (9/25), started at wide receiver and snared three receptions for 18 yards before leaving the game in the second quarter with an injury.

2010 (12/6): Appeared in 12 games with six starts at wide receiver. Finished second on the team with 42 receptions and led the squad with 775 receiving yards and nine receiving touchdowns. Placed seventh in the NFL with an 18.5-yard receiving average. Led or tied for the team lead in receptions four times in 2010 (vs. PIT, at DAL, vs. PHI, vs. HST). Led the team in receiving yards four times in 2010 (at DAL, vs. PHI, vs. HST, at IND). A right hamstring injury suffered at San Diego (10/31) caused him to miss four games.

- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), tied for the team lead with five receptions for 41 yards and scored a two-point conversion on a catch from Kerry Collins.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), gave the Titans a 19-10 lead with an acrobatic 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-seven in the third quarter.
- Against Denver (10/3), evened the score at 7-7 with an eight-yard touchdown grab on third-and-one in the second quarter.
- At Dallas (10/10), started at wide receiver and snared four receptions for 86 yards and a touchdown. Drew two pass interference penalties totaling 48 yards on the Titans' opening touchdown drive. Gave the Titans a 17-3 lead with a 12-yard touchdown grab with 12:28 remaining in the second quarter. Kickstarted a Titans' scoring drive with a 52-yard diving catch in the third quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), started at wide receiver and posted two catches for 33 yards, including a touchdown catch in his fourth consecutive game. Gave the Titans an early 7-0 lead with a 23-yard, catch-and-run touchdown reception in the first quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), led the team and tied a career high with seven receptions for a career-best 225 yards and three touchdowns. The 225 receiving yards were the fifth most in franchise history and the most since Drew Bennett amassed 233 yards against Kansas City (12/13/04). Gave the Titans a 7-3 lead with a leaping, 26-yard touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone on third-and-six in the second quarter. With the Titans pinned at their own one-yard line, drew a 21-yard pass interference penalty that kickstarted a scoring drive. On the next play, hauled in a 34-yard reception down the left sideline. Extended the Titans' scoring drive in the third quarter with a six-yard reception on third-and-one. Started the Titans' fourth-quarter rally by adjusting to a Kerry Collins bomb and racing 80 yards for a touchdown that cut the Eagles lead to 19-17. Snared a 42-yard reception during a Titans' scoring drive in the fourth quarter. Extended the Titans lead to 27-19 with his third touchdown catch of the afternoon, a 16-yarder with 5:03 remaining in the fourth quarter. Joined Bill Groman (eight in 1961) and Chris Sanders (five in 1995) as the only players in franchise history to record at least one touchdown reception in five consecutive contests.

- At San Diego (10/31), left the game in the first quarter with a hamstring injury.
- Against Houston (12/19), led the team with six receptions and 128 receiving yards. Kickstarted the Titans' second touchdown drive with a 59-yard reception off a deflected pass in the first quarter.
- At Kansas City (12/26), snared four receptions for 89 yards and a touchdown. Got the Titans on the scoreboard with a 53-yard touchdown reception with 4:15 remaining in the first half.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), led the team with 85 receiving yards on five receptions with a touchdown before leaving the game in the third quarter with an injury. Converted a third-and-12 and a fourth-and-one with receptions of 22 and eight yards, respectively, during the Titans' scoring drive in the second quarter. Evened the score at 13-13 in the third quarter with a 21-yard touchdown reception.

2009 (16/6): In his rookie season, led the team with 701 receiving yards and finished fourth on the squad with 42 receptions. He was one of two Titans rookies in 2009 to play in all 16 games, recording six starts. Ranked fifth in franchise rookie history in receiving yards and produced the highest receiving yardage total by a Titans rookie receiver since Chris Sanders' 823 yards in 1995. Tied for sixth in team annals in receptions by a rookie. Among the 2009 NFL rookie class, Britt was seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in receptions, and he was fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC in receiving yards. Ranked eighth in the NFL with a 16.7-yard receiving average. Posted at least one reception in 14 of 16 games in 2009, including at least one catch in the final eight games of the season. Led the team in receiving yards six times (at PIT, at NYJ, at JAX, at HST, vs. ARI, vs. STL), and led or tied for the team lead in receptions four times (at NYJ, at JAX, at HST, vs. ARI). Registered two 100-yard receiving games (at JAX, vs. ARI).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), saw significant action as a reserve in his first NFL contest and grabbed four receptions for a team-high 85 yards. Collected his first career NFL reception with a 15-yard catch in the second quarter. Got open down the left sideline and hauled in a 57-yard reception to set up the Titans' lone touchdown of the evening late in the second quarter.
- Against Buffalo (11/15), made his first career NFL start at wide receiver and caught two passes for 55 yards in the Titans' 41-17 win. Kickstarted the Titans' second touchdown drive with a 38-yard reception down the left sideline in the first quarter.
- At Houston (11/23), started and led the team with 42 receiving yards on four receptions with a touchdown in a 20-17 Monday Night Football victory. Registered his first career NFL touchdown reception with a 13-yard catch on third-and-three with 12:50 remaining in the second quarter.
- Against Arizona (11/29), tied a career-best with seven receptions for a career-high 128 yards, including the game-winning score in the Titans' 20-17 come-from-behind victory. Converted a fourth-and-eight with a 24-yard reception in the second quarter. Hauled in a 51-yard catch in the fourth quarter. Kept the Titans' game-winning touchdown drive alive with a 10-yard catch on fourth-and-four in the final stanza. Finally, gave the Titans a 20-17 victory with a leaping, 10-yard touchdown catch in the back of the end zone on fourth-and-goal with no time remaining in the game.
- At Indianapolis (12/6), grabbed three receptions for 46 yards and a touchdown, marking his third consecutive game with a scoring catch. Hauled in a 25-yard reception along the left sideline in the second quarter and cut the Colts lead to 21-10 with a six-yard touchdown catch with 20 seconds left to play in the first half. Returned a kickoff a season-best 56 yards in the fourth quarter.
- Against St. Louis (12/13), snared two receptions for a team-high 75 yards in the Titans' commanding 47-7 victory. Hauled in a 31-yard reception on the Titans first play from scrimmage, then caught a short pass in the left flat and turned it up-field for a 44-yard gain in the third quarter.

COLLEGE:

- In a three-year career at Rutgers University (34 games, 31 starts), set a Big East Conference record with 3,043 receiving yards. He additionally
