PRO: The Titans signed Ben Jones early in the 2016 free agency period to bring veteran leadership and experience to the center position and he provided just that in his first campaign with the club. The 6-foot-3-inch, 308-pounder was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. The University of Georgia product is a versatile player, having started contests at center and both guard spots in his first four seasons with the Texans.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Jones has started games at center, left guard and right guard during his NFL career and has opened holes for three 1,000-yard rushers.
- In 2016, Jones centered all 16 games in his first campaign with the Titans and was a part of an offensive front that blocked for the NFL's third-ranked rushing attack which averaged 136.7 rush yards per game.
- In 2015, Jones transitioned to his natural position of center and started all 16 games and the playoff contest for the Texans.
- In 2014, Jones started all 16 contests at left guard.
- As a rookie in 2012, Jones started the final 10 games of the season at right guard and was named the Texans Rookie of the Year.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Jones switched from jersey #61 to #60 prior to his senior season at Georgia, to honor his father, Steve, a former collegiate star, who was killed in a helicopter crash when he was 10 years old.
- Jones' pregame ritual consists of walking barefoot on the field "to get a feel for the turf." The routine began before one game with his brother in high school and after enjoying success that night, it has continued ever since.
- When he was 10 years old, Jones suffered a blow to the head with a baseball bat. The impact caused a blood clot to develop on his brain and fractured his skull. The injury kept him out of all athletic activity for a year, proving to be a challenging time for an active and athletic boy. Although it was a tough period in his life, Ben says this time turned him into the man he is today. As soon as he was cleared for activities, Jones threw himself into being the best athlete he could be.
- During the 2017 offseason, Jones and his wife, Alex, hosted the Ben Jones Celebrity Clay Shoot to benefit The Ronald McDonald House in Nashville. The event raised $85,000. Ben and Alex have a passion for helping children and have seen first-hand the blessings provided by the Ronald McDonald House to friends and family with sick children.
- Jones' brother, Clay, played baseball for the University of Alabama and then was drafted by the Detroit Tigers.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Brent, Ala., Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft.
