JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-2) VS. TENNESSEE TITANS (0-3)

Sunday, October 4 ■ Jacksonville Municipal Stadium (67,246) ■ 1:00 p.m. EDT

A week after claiming their first win, the Jaguars play a second straight division game as they host Tennessee on Sunday, October 4. Kickoff is set for 1:00 p.m. EDT.

The Jaguars registered 398 yards of total offense including 184 rushing yards and scored four touchdowns last Sunday to defeat Houston, 31-24, at Reliant Stadium. RB Maurice Jones-Drew rushed for 119 yards and three touchdowns and the defense forced two turnovers including a fumble at the goal line to seal the victory. LB Daryl Smith forced a fumble of Texans RB Chris Brown at the two-yard line with 2:10 remaining and recovered it in the end zone to give the club their first win in Houston since 2005.

"I was proud of the effort the guys put forth," Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio said. "The staff, the players preparing during the week going over to Houston and coming out of it with a win somehow, someway, and when it's one we had to have; a big divisional game, a big win against a divisional opponent at their place."

Sunday will be the Jaguars' third division game in the first four weeks. They fell 14-12 at Indianapolis in the season-opener but had the ball with a chance to win in the final minutes. The Jaguars have 27 new faces and four rookies have been in the starting lineup for the Jaguars the first three weeks in CB Derek Cox, DT Terrance Knighton, OT Eben Britton and OT Eugene Monroe. Ten rookies saw action against the Texans including four draft picks who made their NFL debuts in WR Mike Thomas (4th round), WR Jarett Dillard (5th round), TE Zach Miller (6th round) and WR Tiquan Underwood (7th round).

"I like the effort, I like the energy," Del Rio said. "I keep saying we have a young team, we're going to improve. I've said this throughout the offseason, 'the way you're approaching it, you will improve as a football player. The way we're approaching it, we will improve as a football team.' It's not maybe, it's not a question of, it's just a matter of how much. But we're going to improve. We have improved and we've got a long way to go yet, but the way we're working at it gives us a chance."

The Jaguars have forced six turnovers, two in each game, and rank fourth in the AFC with a plus-two turnover differential. LB Justin Durant leads the team with 39 tackles. Cox and CB Rashean Mathis each have a team-high two takeaways with one interception and one fumble recovery apiece.

Jones-Drew is in his first season as the lead running back and he ranks sixth in the NFL with 282 rushing yards (94.0 avg. per game) and tied for second with four touchdowns.

The Jaguars have played the Houston/Tennessee franchise more than any other NFL team. The Jaguars and Titans have met 28 times in the regular season with the Titans leading the series, 16-12. The Titans swept the series in 2008.

TELEVISION: The game will be broadcast regionally on CBS. Dick Enberg will handle play-by-play duties with Dan Fouts providing analysis.

RADIO: Sunday's game will be broadcast on the Jaguars Radio Network which extends to 11 affiliates in Florida and Georgia. The Jaguars' flagship stations are WOKV AM & FM (690, 106.5). Brian Sexton (play-by-play) and former Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman (analyst) are in their seventh season together calling all Jaguars games.

RECENT TRANSACTIONS: The Jaguars signed second-year LB Bryan Smith off the St. Louis Rams practice squad on Monday and added third-year DT Greg Peterson on Tuesday. The team waived rookie DE Jeremy Navarre and first-year CB Kennard Cox. Smith, 6-2, 250, was selected in the third round of the 2008 draft by Philadelphia, the 80th pick overall. He spent the entire season on the Eagles roster but was inactive for all 16 games. Peterson was a fifth-round pick of Tampa Bay in 2007 and played in 12 games for the Buccaneers the last two seasons.

NEW CROP OF JAGUARS: Of the Jaguars' 53 roster players, 27 are new to the team. Only 11 of the 22 players who started on opening day in 2008 are back. In addition, the Jaguars have added 15 players, 10 on the active roster, since training camp began.

2009 DRAFT CLASS CONTINUES TO GROW: The 2009 NFL Draft officially ended with the selection of Mr. Irrelevant on April 26, but the Jaguars have continued to add draft picks to their roster. The Jaguars selected nine players in this year's draft and all nine players are on the 53-man roster. In addition, the club has added three players that were drafted by other teams in DB Don Carey (6th round, Cleveland), S Courtney Greene (7th round, Seattle) and CB William Middleton (5th round, Atlanta). Carey was placed on injured reserve on September 1.

BUILDING THROUGH THE DRAFT: The Jaguars had the highest number of own draft choices to start for any NFL team on Kickoff Weekend. Eighteen of the 22 players who started at Indianapolis were drafted by the Jaguars and 20 of the 22 players who started the last two weeks were drafted by the club. The only players that weren't draft picks by the club to start a game in 2009 are wide receiver Torry Holt, wide receiver Troy Williamson, defensive end Reggie Hayward and safety Sean Considine.

MOVIN' ON UP: WR Torry Holt moved into 12th place in NFL history for receiving yards with 57 yards on three receptions last Sunday at Houston. Holt has 881 career receptions for 12,829 yards. He extended his streak with a reception to 156 games against the Texans, the second-longest streak among active players and the 9th-longest in NFL history.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

- The Jaguars have outscored their opponents 20-0 in the fourth quarter. The 20-point differential is the third-highest in the NFL and the Jaguars are the only team to not allow points in the fourth quarter through three games.
- The Jaguars are 35-10 under head coach Jack Del Rio when they score first.
- The Jaguars own a 34-6 record since 2003 when they score 20-plus points and control the ball for 30 minutes or more. The Jaguars had the ball for a season-high 30:52 at Houston last Sunday.
- The average length of the Jaguars scoring drives is 9.18 plays, the seventh-highest in the NFL.
- The Jaguars have six drives of 10-plus plays and have scored five of their seven touchdowns on 10-play drives. The Jaguars have four drives of five minutes or more.
- The Jaguars have 34 rushes of four-plus yards, eight of 10-plus yards, five of 20-plus yards and one of 50-plus yards. The five rushes of 20-plus yards ranks first in the AFC and second in the NFL.
- The offense has been faced with third-and-long (10-plus yards) 14 times and converted five times (35.7 pct.), the fifth-highest percentage in the NFL. Opponents have been faced with third-and-long (10-plus yards) 10 times and converted only once (10.0 pct.), tied for the sixth-lowest in the NFL.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- Sunday's game will be the 100th regular season game as a head coach for Jack Del Rio. This will be the 300th game in Jaguars history, counting preseason, regular season and postseason.
- WR Torry Holt needs three receptions to surpass Keenan McCardell (883) for 10th place in NFL history for most receptions.
- A Jaguars win would improve their record to 2-2, the sixth consecutive season with a .500 record or above after four games.
- RB Maurice Jones-Drew needs 21 receiving yards to become only the ninth player in franchise history with 1,500 career receiving yards and only the second running back (Fred Taylor).
- TE Mercedes Lewis needs two receptions for 100 for his career.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS VS. TENNESSEE TITANS, OCTOBER 4, 2009

JAGUARS/TITANS SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars have played the Houston/Tennessee franchise more than any other NFL team. The Jaguars and Titans have met 28 times in the regular season with the Titans leading the series, 16-12. The Titans won the clubs' only postseason meeting, 33-14, in the 1999 AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. The first four games of the series were while the franchise was in Houston. The clubs met twice annually from 1996 to 2001 as members of the AFC Central where the Jaguars claimed two division titles (1998, 1999). The Jaguars snapped a five-game losing streak to the Titans on 9/26/04 in Nashville with a 15-12 win, the club's first-ever win in Nashville.

HISTORY OF TIGHT GAMES: The Jaguars and Titans have met 28 times with 18 of the 28 games being decided by 7 points or less while eight games have been decided by 3 points or less. The two teams have never played an overtime game.

HEAD COACH JEFF FISHER: Jeff Fisher is in his 15th season as the Titans' head coach. He has posted a 128-105 regular season record the past 16 seasons (he was interim coach for the final six games of 1994). Fisher has led the Titans to six playoff appearances (1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2007, 2008) including the franchise's first AFC championship in 1999 and a trip to Super Bowl XXXIV. He leads the NFL in seniority among current NFL head coaches. Fisher became only the fifth coach in NFL history to lead his team to consecutive 13-win seasons (1999, 2000). Fisher played defensive back for the Chicago Bears (1981-85) and holds club records for punt return yards in a season (509 in 1981) and punt returns in a season (58 in 1984). His 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in 1981 was the Bears' longest in 39 years. He played at Southern California (1977-80), just ahead of Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio (1981-84), and was teammates with Dennis Smith and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Ronnie Lott. Fisher began his coaching career with Philadelphia (1986-1990) before moving on to the Los Angeles Rams (1990) and San Francisco (1992-93).

JAGUARS EARN FIRST WIN OF 2009 SEASON

■ The Jaguars compiled nearly 400 yards of offense and the defense forced two turnovers as they picked up their first win of the season with a 31-24 victory at Houston last Sunday. The win was the Jaguars first at Reliant Stadium since 2005.

■ The two teams combined for 795 yards of offense (Jaguars 398, Texans 397) and seven touchdowns including three rushing touchdowns by Jaguars running back Maurice Jones-Drew.

■ Rashean Mathis intercepted Texans QB Matt Schaub on the opening drive of the game and the Jaguars took an early 3-0 lead with a 52-yard field goal by Josh Scobee. Following an 18-yard touchdown pass from Schaub to Jacoby Jones, Jaguars quarterback David Garrard scored on a two-yard run.

■ The Texans regained the lead on a nine-yard scoring strike from Schaub to Kevin Walter. On the ensuing possession, Jones-Drew broke through the middle of the Texans defense and raced 61 yards to the end zone for the second-longest run of his career.

■ Schaub threw his third touchdown pass of the first half with 23 seconds remaining as he found tight end Owens Daniels for a two-yard score to make it 21-17 at the half.

■ The Jaguars took control of the game in the second half, outscoring the Texans 14-3. Jones-Drew had rushing touchdowns on the team's first two offensive possessions. The Texans scored their only points of the half on a 27-yard field goal by Kris Brown late in the third quarter.

■ The Jaguars were clinging to a seven-point lead with just under five minutes to play when Garrard connected with Mike Sims-Walker on a short pass but he fumbled and the Texans recovered.

■ Schaub hit on four of his five passes and the Texans moved the ball to the one-yard line with 2:48 remaining. On second-and-goal from the two-yard line, Chris Brown went over right guard and Jaguars linebacker Daryl Smith forced a fumble and recovered it in the end zone to seal the victory.

■ Smith finished with eight tackles and a team-high three quarterback hits. LB Justin Durant led the Jaguars for the third consecutive game as he recorded 10 tackles.

■ LB Clint Ingram and DT Montavious Stanley recorded sacks for the Jaguars.

■ For the third consecutive week, four rookies were in the starting lineup for the Jaguars (CB Derek Cox, DT Terrance Knighton, OT Eben Britton, OT Eugene Monroe).

■ The Jaguars had five plays of 20-plus yards (1 rushing, 4 passing).

■ Garrard finished 18 of 30 passing for 214 yards and led the offense on three drives of 10-plus plays. He finished with six completions of 14-plus yards with a long of 28 yards to Sims-Walker.

■ The Jaguars rushed for a season-high 184 yards on 31 carries (5.9 avg.) with four touchdowns. Jones-Drew had a game-high 119 yards on 23 carries. Garrard had a 30-yard run on the club's opening drive, the second-longest run of his career (41t, 10/13/02 at Tennessee). Rookie WR Mike Thomas, playing in his first NFL game, had a 22-yard run in the third quarter.

■ The Jaguars scored a season-high 31 points, the most since 11/9/08 at Detroit (38) and produced 30-plus points for the 13th time under head coach Jack Del Rio.

■ Rookie WR's Mike Thomas (4th round), Jarett Dillard (5th round) and Tiquan Underwood (7th round) along with TE Zach Miller (6th round) played in their first NFL regular season game. Thomas had two rushes for 35 yards and one reception for 10 yards.

TURNOVER DIFFERENTIAL

The Jaguars have forced two turnovers in each of the first three games for only the third time in franchise history (1997, 2002). The Jaguars are fourth in the AFC, tied for ninth in the NFL, with a plus-two turnover differential. Here's the list:

SEASONED TRIO OF LINEBACKERS

Perhaps the strongest position on defense for the Jaguars is at linebacker. The club returns three seasoned players in Justin Durant, Clint Ingram and Daryl Smith who have made a combined 137 career starts. Here's a closer look at the starters:

■ OLB Daryl Smith - Leads the team with two forced fumbles and ranks second with 32 tackles through three games. He forced a fumble of Texans RB Chris Brown on the goal line last Sunday and recovered the ball in the end zone to seal the win. He has started 77 of 79 games since being selected in the second round of the 2004 draft. He has missed only three games in six seasons due to injuries and has started on the outside and in the middle. He has recorded 644 tackles, 13 sacks, three interceptions, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He has a streak of four straight seasons with 100-plus tackles.

■ MLB Justin Durant - Third-year pro moved to the middle in 2009 and leads the team with 39 tackles. He has started 23 of 30 games and recorded 222 tackles, one sack, two forced fumbles and one interception since being selected in the second round of the 2007 draft. He led the team in 2008 with seven tackles for loss and ranked third on the club with 113 tackles. In 2007, he led the team with 31 postseason tackles in two games.

■ OLB Clint Ingram - A third round pick in 2006, Ingram has started 37 of 46 games including a career-high 12 starts in 2008. He has recorded 273 career tackles with 5.5 sacks and two interceptions. He registered his first sack of the season last Sunday at Houston and finished with eight tackles.

RED ZONE EFFICIENCY

The Jaguars are one of five teams in 2009 to come away with points on every trip into the red zone. The Jaguars have scored five touchdowns and two field goals on their seven drives inside the 20. The Jaguars came away with touchdowns on all three trips to the red zone last Sunday at Houston, all on first down plays.

OFFENSE THRIVES UNDER DIRK KOETTER

The Jaguars rank in the top five among NFL offenses the last three seasons under offensive coordinator Dirk Koetter. A former head coach at Arizona State, Koetter joined the Jaguars in 2007.

In his first season with the Jaguars, Koetter directed a record-breaking season by the offense. The Jaguars set a franchise single-season record for points (411, 25.7 avg.), touchdowns (50), touchdown passes (28) and yards per play (5.6).

The Jaguars rank fifth in the AFC from 2007-09 with an average of 337.8 yards per game and rank fourth with 85 total offensive touchdowns.

SIMS-WALKER LEADS JAGUARS PASSING GAME: Third-year pro Mike Sims-Walker led the Jaguars in receiving for the second consecutive game last Sunday at Houston and has totaled 12 receptions for 187 yards with one touchdown in the two games. Sims-Walker finished with six receptions for 81 yards against the Texans including a reception of 28 yards.

After not recording a catch in the season-opener at Indianapolis, Walker exploded for six receptions and 106 yards and one touchdown in week two against Arizona. All of his yards came in the fourth quarter as he had fourth quarter receptions of 34, 21, 19 (TD), 17 and 16 yards. His 19-yard touchdown reception with 7:11 remaining in the fourth quarter was the first of his career. The 2007 third-round pick missed the first three preseason games with an ankle injury suffered the first week of training camp. He finished with 16 receptions for 217 yards in 2008 including six receptions for 107 yards against Pittsburgh on 10/5, finishing with receptions of 32, 18, 16, 14 and nine yards against the Steelers. He missed his entire rookie season with a knee injury.

ROOKIES TAKE LEADING ROLE

The Jaguars started a franchise-record four rookies in the season-opener at Indianapolis in OT Eben Britton, CB Derek Cox, DT Terrance Knighton and OT Eugene Monroe. All four players have started the first three games. The last rookies to start on opening day for the Jaguars were LB Daryl Smith and WR Reggie Williams on September 12, 2004 at Buffalo. Additional notes include:

- Britton and Monroe were the first pair of rookie tackles to start on opening day in the NFL since 1982 when Luis Sharpe and Tootie Robbins started for the St. Louis Cardinals.
- Knighton was the first rookie to start at defensive tackle on opening day in franchise history.
- Cox was only the second rookie to start at cornerback in franchise history. Fernando Bryant, the club's first-round pick in 1999, started the season-opener against San Francisco. Rashean Mathis started the first six games of his rookie year at safety before moving to cornerback.
- 12 Jaguars have played in their first NFL regular season games in 2009 including 11 rookies (Eugene Monroe, Eben Britton, Terrance Knighton, Derek Cox, Zach Miller, Tiquan Underwood, Russell Allen, Jarett Dillard, Mike Thomas, Rashad Jennings and Julius Williams). First-year pro Atiyah Ellison saw his first career action at Indianapolis.

END ZONE ASSAULT

Maurice Jones-Drew rushed for 119 yards last Sunday at Houston and tied his career-high with three touchdowns (11/9/08 at Detroit). Jones-Drew scored on a 61-yard run in the second quarter, a one-yard rush in the third quarter and an eight-yard run up the middle in the fourth quarter. Additional notes include:

- He ranks third in franchise history with 44 career touchdowns (38 rushing, 4 receiving, 2 kickoff returns) in only 50 games.
- Recorded multiple touchdowns in nine career games and the Jaguars own a 7-2 record in those games.
- The 61-yard touchdown run against the Texans was the second-longest of his career (74t, 12/24/06 vs. New England). It was the longest play for the Jaguars since 12/23/07 against Oakland when Fred Taylor had a 62-yard rushing touchdown, a span of 19 games.
- Ranked second in franchise history with 38 career rushing touchdowns in 50 games.
- In 2008, he finished tied for sixth in the NFL, third in the AFC, with 14 touchdowns (12 rushing, 2 receiving).
- First player in franchise history to have at least nine rushing touchdowns in three consecutive seasons.
- Ranked first in franchise history with 5.3 average points per game.

Jones-Drew joins Arizona's Tim Hightower (32-109 rushing, 20-172 receiving) and Buffalo's Fred Jackson (61-291 rushing, 15-134 receiving) as the only players in 2009 to lead their respective teams in rushing yards and receptions.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS HEAD COACH JACK DEL RIO

DEL RIO IN SEVENTH SEASON AS HEAD COACH: Jack Del Rio is in his seventh season as the Jaguars' head coach with a regular season record of 51-48. Del Rio was named to the post on January 17, 2003, becoming the second head coach in Jaguars history. Sunday will mark his 100th regular season game as a head coach.

He is one of just nine current NFL head coaches to earn 50 wins. In 2007, the Jaguars posted an 11-5 regular season record to earn the second playoff berth in three years, in addition to the franchise's first playoff win since the 1999 season. The Jaguars are one of only six teams to rank in the top 13 in both offense and defense since 2003.

Del Rio is now in his 24th year in the NFL, his 13th as a coach. Del Rio spent 11 years as an NFL linebacker and had a standout college career at the University of Southern California. He previously coached in New Orleans (1997-98), Baltimore (1999-2001), and Carolina (2002). He was the Panthers' defensive coordinator, and in his only season with the club the defense improved from last in the NFL to second, the biggest one-season defensive improvement in NFL history. Del Rio was the linebackers coach for three seasons in Baltimore, where the Ravens' defense also ranked second each season. He helped the team win Super Bowl XXXV over the New York Giants and coached the Ravens' talented linebackers, overseeing the development of Peter Boulware, Jamie Sharper and Ray Lewis, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV. Prior to coaching, Del Rio played 11 seasons in the NFL, with New Orleans (1985-86), Kansas City (1987-88), Dallas (1989-1991) and Minnesota (1992-95), playing in the Pro Bowl following the 1994 season.

Del Rio was a starter at linebacker for Southern California (1981-84), where he earned All-America honors, was a runner-up for the Lombardi Award and co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl. Del Rio is one of three NFL head coaches (Jeff Fisher, Mike Holmgren) who graduated from USC. Del Rio has learned from some of the best coaches in all of football. He was recruited to USC and played for John Robinson, and in the NFL he played under Bum Phillips, Jim Mora, Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Green. As an assistant coach, he has worked for Hall of Famer Mike Ditka and Super Bowl winner Brian Billick, as well as Super Bowl participant John Fox. Among other notable coaches Del Rio has worked with are Dom Capers, Tony Dungy, Dave Wannstedt, Monte Kiffin, Mike Tice, Tom Moore, Norv Turner and Butch Davis. Drafted by baseball's Toronto Blue Jays, Del Rio batted .340 while playing catcher on USC's baseball team in 1983 and 1984 with future stars Randy Johnson and Mark McGwire. He was a third-round choice by the New Orleans Saints in 1985 and was named to the NFL's All-Rookie team.

NFL HEAD COACHES WITH NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE:

Jack Del Rio had the second-longest playing tenure in the NFL among the league's nine current head coaches who played in the NFL. Del Rio played 11 seasons in the NFL with New Orleans (1985-86), Kansas City (1987-88), Dallas (1989-91) and Minnesota (1992-95). Tennessee head coach Jeff Fisher played five seasons in the league. GENE SMITH IN 1ST SEASON AS GENERAL MANAGER

Jacksonville Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver promoted Gene Smith to general manager and senior vice president, player personnel on January 12, 2009.

Smith, 45, has served in several roles in the Jaguars' personnel department since 1994. One of 14 current staff members who joined the organization in its first year, Smith came to Jacksonville as the team's scouting representative for the BLESTO scouting organization. He became a Jaguars college scout in 1996, and was promoted in 2000 to director of college scouting. In 2008, Smith was promoted to the position of executive director/college and pro personnel.

The personnel department includes: Terry McDonough (Director, Player Personnel), Louis Clark (Assistant Director, Pro Personnel), and Tim Minge (Assistant Director, College Personnel).

JAGUARS 2009 DRAFT CLASS: The Jaguars selected nine players in the 2009 NFL Draft including seven players on Sunday in the final five rounds. All nine players are on the active roster and four have started the first three games. Seven offensive players and two defensive players were selected. The seven offensive players tied for the most taken by the club in franchise history (1995).

OT Eugene Monroe (Round 1, 8th overall, Virginia)

OT Eben Britton (Round 2, 39th overall, Arizona)

DT Terrance Knighton (Round 3, 72nd overall, Temple)

■ Started first three games. Four-year letterman and three-year starter. Played in 46 games and finished with 26 tackles for loss.

CB Derek Cox (Round 3, 73rd overall, William & Mary)

■ Started first three games and had an interception and fumble recovery. Jaguars traded up with New England to select him. Three-year starter and second-highest drafted player in school history (Darren Sharper, 2nd, 1997). Registered nine career interceptions.

WR Mike Thomas (Round 4, 107th overall, Arizona)

■ Saw first NFL action last Sunday at Houston. Pac-10's all-time leader in receptions with 259. Scored touchdowns three different ways as a senior (4 receiving, 2 punt returns, 1 kick return).

WR Jarett Dillard (Round 5, 144th overall, Rice)

■ Saw action for one play last Sunday at Houston. Set NCAA record with 60 career touchdown receptions and set Conference USA record with 4,138 receiving yards.

TE Zach Miller (Round 6, 180th overall, Nebraska-Omaha)

■ Former college quarterback rushed for a school-record 50 touchdowns as a senior. Hampered by knee injury in the preseason and saw his first NFL action last Sunday at Houston.

RB Rashad Jennings (Round 7, 250th overall, Liberty)

■ Rushed for 4,044 yards and 43 touchdowns. Spent freshman season at Pittsburgh before transferring to Liberty for final three seasons. Consensus first-team All-America selection as a senior.

WR Tiquan Underwood (Round 7, 253rd overall, Rutgers)

■ Saw first NFL action last Sunday at Houston and returned two kicks for 19.0 average. Four-year letterman was selected with one of two compensatory picks. Had 132 career receptions for 16 touchdowns. Signed to club's practice squad.

BUILDING THE LOCKERROOM: The Jaguars have 13 rookies/first-year players on their 53-man roster but they don't lack veteran leadership. General manager Gene Smith and head coach Jack Del Rio brought in several veterans in the offseason led by wide receiver Torry Holt, left tackle Tra Thomas and safety Sean Considine.

Del Rio remembers entering the NFL in 1985 as a third round pick of the New Orleans Saints and players like Glen Redd, Rickey Jackson and Scott Pelluer serving as a mentor for him. "These guys are great human beings that are consummate pros, that are going to be good citizens in our community," said Del Rio. "They're going to come in, they're going to bust their butt every day for us on the practice field, in the locker room. They know what it takes to win."

CLOSER LOOK AT THE ROSTER

ROSTER TURNOVER

There are 27 new faces among the 53 players on the Jaguars' roster. Here is the breakdown.

QUARTERBACKS — David Garrard is one of only four players on the roster prior to the 2003 season (C Brad Meester, G/OT Maurice Williams, DT John Henderson). Luke McCown was acquired via trade from Tampa Bay on Sept. 6.

RUNNING BACKS — The Jaguars have four running backs on their roster and three of the four have been with the club since 2006. Seventh-round pick Rashad Jennings is the only newcomer to the group.

TIGHT ENDS — 2006 first round pick Mercedes Lewis is the only tight end that has played for the club since 2006.

WIDE RECEIVERS — Mike Sims-Walker (9 games) is the only receiver on the roster that played for the Jaguars in 2008. Of the five receivers, three are rookies who played in their first NFL game last Sunday at Houston.

OFFENSIVE LINE — Five of the nine linemen were on the club's roster at the end of last season. The Jaguars have new starters in 2009 at both tackle positions in rookies Eugene Monroe and Eben Britton.

DEFENSIVE LINE — Seven players returned in 2009 including ninth-year pro Reggie Hayward (injured reserve) and eighth-year veteran John Henderson. Hayward was placed on injured reserve after suffering a leg injury in the season-opener. The Jaguars added third-year DT Greg Peterson on Tuesday.

LINEBACKERS — Four of the seven players saw significant action for the Jaguars in 2008. The three projected starters in Clint Ingram, Justin Durant and Daryl Smith have started 14 games together the last three seasons. The Jaguars signed second-year LB Bryan Smith off the St. Louis Rams practice squad on Monday

DEFENSIVE BACKS — The Jaguars have seven new players in the secondary including starting strong safety Sean Considine. CB Rashean Mathis is the elder statesman of the group as he is in his seventh season. The Jaguars added rookie CB William Middleton off Atlanta's practice squad last week and also signed rookie free agent safety Courtney Greene.

SPECIALISTS — Two of the three specialists have been with the club since 2007 in kicker Josh Scobee and punter Adam Podlesh. Jeremy Cain is in his first season with the club as long snapper.

TAKING CARE OF THEIR OWN

ELDER STATESMEN: Six Jaguars players have played in 100 or more games during their careers: OT Tra Thomas (168 games, 165 starts), WR Torry Holt (161 games, 148 starts), C Brad Meester (132 games, 132 starts), DT John Henderson (112 games, 108 starts), S Brian Russell (111 games, 94 starts) and OL Maurice Williams (104 games, 99 starts). Only Meester (132), Henderson (112) and Mo Williams (104) have played in 100 games as a Jaguar.

OFFSEASON ACQUISITIONS: The Jaguars added several veterans in the offseason including two unrestricted free agents from Philadelphia in safety Sean Considine and Tra Thomas along with veteran free agent wide receiver Torry Holt. Here's the list:

S Gerald Alexander (Trade, Detroit)

■ Acquired via trade with Detroit on June 29. Played in 21 games with 17 starts with the Lions since being selected in the second round of the 2007 draft. Started all 16 games as a rookie and played in the first five games in 2008 before suffering a fractured vertebra and missed the remainder of the season.

CB Tyron Brackenridge (Waivers, New York Jets)

■ Claimed off waivers from the New York Jets on May 20. Played in 14 games with one start with Kansas City the last two seasons.

LS Jeremy Cain (Waivers, Washington)

■ Third-year veteran was claimed off waivers from Washington on June 17. Won the long snapper job in the preseason. Has played in 19 games with Chicago, Tennessee and for the Jaguars.

S Sean Considine (UFA, Philadelphia)

■ Spent the past four seasons with Philadelphia where he played in 46 games with 17 starts. Career totals include 168 tackles, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble.

G Kynan Forney (FA, San Diego)

■ Veteran guard has started 88 of 95 games with Atlanta. Joined San Diego as a free agent in 2008 but did not play. Signed with the Jaguars on September 8. Was part of the NFL's top rushing attack from 2004-06 at Atlanta and was Pro Bowl alternate in 2005.

WR Torry Holt (FA, St. Louis)

■ Seven-time Pro Bowl selection signed with the Jaguars as a veteran free agent on April 20. Career totals include 881 receptions for 12,829 yards with 74 touchdowns and 46 career 100-yard receiving games.

QB Luke McCown (Trade, Tampa Bay)

■ Sixth-year quarterback has played in 12 career games with seven starts. Acquired via trade with Tampa Bay on September 6. Career totals include 142 of 238 passing for 1,617 yards with 9 TDs/10 INTs for 75.2 rating.

S Brian Russell (FA, Seattle)

■ Signed by the Jaguars on Sept. 8. Eighth-year veteran has played in 110 games with 94 starts for Minnesota, Cleveland, Seattle and the Jaguars. Has started all 16 games five times including the last two seasons with Seattle at free safety.

LB Adam Seward (FA, Indianapolis)

■ Fifth-year pro signed as a free agent on August 24. Has played in 41 games in five seasons, totaling 29 special teams tackles with Carolina.

DT Montavious Stanley (FA, New Orleans)

■ Signed as a veteran free agent on July 23. Has played in 20 games with six starts. Career totals include 40 tackles, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

OT Tra Thomas (UFA, Philadelphia)

■ Three-time Pro Bowl selection spent the past 11 seasons with Philadelphia. Has missed only eight games due to injuries. Has started 165 of 168 games and made 17 postseason starts.

TE Ernest Wilford (FA, Miami)

■ Sixth-year pro was originally a fourth-round pick of the Jaguars in 2004. Started his career at wide receiver before making switch to tight end with Miami in 2009 offseason. Has played in 73 games and totaled 145 receptions for 2,032 yards and 14 touchdowns.

POSITION-BY-POSITION

QUARTERBACKS (2)

■ The Jaguars had two quarterbacks on their opening day roster for the third consecutive season and third time overall. David Garrard, a fourth-round pick in 2002, is in his third season as the starter and has played every snap through three games. Garrard owns a 25-24 record as a starter with 53 touchdown passes and an 84.7 career passer rating. In 2009, Garrard has completed 55 of 101 passes for 618 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a 75.4 rating. He registered his 10th career rushing touchdown last Sunday at Houston.

■ Sixth-year veteran Luke McCown was acquired via trade from Tampa Bay on Sept. 6 and he backs up Garrard. McCown, fourth round pick of Cleveland in 2004, has played in 12 career games with seven starts. He was acquired via trade by Tampa Bay in 2005. His career totals include 142 of 238 passing for 1,617 yards with nine touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 75.2 rating.

RUNNING BACKS (4)

■ Four running backs are on the roster led by fourth-year pro Maurice Jones-Drew. Jones-Drew ranks second in the NFL with 44 touchdowns (38 rushing, 4 receiving, 2 returns) the past four seasons. Jones-Drew leads the team in rushing yards (282), touchdowns (4) and receptions (13) through three games. He opened the 2009 season with 123 yards from scrimmage at Indianapolis (97 rushing, 26 receiving) with a rushing touchdown. He rushed for 119 yards and three touchdowns last Sunday at Houston including a 61-yard run.

■ Fullback Greg Jones returns for his sixth season and has career totals of 257 rushes for 869 yards and nine touchdowns. Montell Owens backs up Jones and excels on special teams. Owens, who didn't play in the preseason, ranked second on the team in 2008 with 18 special teams tackles and had two touchdowns on special teams.

■ Seventh-round pick Rashad Jennings earned a roster spot and backs up Jones-Drew and also sees time as a kick returner. Jennings rushed for 3,633 yards and 42 touchdowns at Liberty with 22 100-yard rushing games.

WIDE RECEIVERS (5)

■ The Jaguars receiving corps was upgraded in the offseason with the addition of a seven-time Pro Bowler and three players through the draft. The club added Torry Holt through free agency and he is in his 11th NFL season, ranking 11th in NFL history in receptions (881) and 12th in receiving yards (12,829). He has played in 161 games with 148 starts and ranks first in NFL history with 79.7 average receiving yards per game.

■ Mike Sims-Walker, a 2007 third-round pick, leads the team with 187 yards on 12 receptions including 106 yards and one touchdown against Arizona in week two. Sims-Walker saw his first career action in 2008 and finished with 16 receptions for 271 yards. He had his first career 100-yard receiving game vs. Pittsburgh in 2008, finishing with six receptions for 107 yards.

■ The Jaguars added three wideouts in the draft with Mike Thomas (4th round), Jarett Dillard (5th round) and Tiquan Underwood (7th round) and all three made their NFL debuts last Sunday. Thomas finished as the Pac-10's all-time leader in receptions with 259 at Arizona. Dillard set a NCAA record with 60 career touchdown receptions. Underwood, a teammate of Tennessee's Kenny Britt at Rutgers, finished with 132 receptions and 16 touchdowns in four seasons for the Scarlet Knights.

TIGHT ENDS (3)

■ Former first-round pick Marcedes Lewis has emerged as a threat in the passing game as he ranked fourth on the team in 2008 with a career-high 41 receptions for 489 yards and two touchdowns. Lewis, the 28th overall pick in 2006, has 98 career receptions for 1,109 yards and six touchdowns including a 25-yard touchdown in week two against Arizona.

■ Sixth-round pick Zach Miller showed his athleticism in training camp as he makes the transition from college quarterback to tight end. Miller missed the final three preseason games and first two regular season games with a knee injury and saw his first NFL action last Sunday at Houston.

■ Former fourth round pick Ernest Wilford rejoined the Jaguars on August 25 after spending the 2008 season with Miami. Wilford has played in 73 career games with 37 starts and totaled 145 receptions for 2,032 yards and 14 touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE LINE (9)

■ The Jaguars offensive line has a different look in 2009 as several players return from injuries and the club added two players in the draft. Center Brad Meester, who ranks third in franchise history with 132 starts, starts at center in his 10th NFL season.

■ Vince Manuwai is entrenched as the left guard as he returns to the lineup. Ninth-year veteran Maurice Williams has started 99 of 104 games and he starts at right guard. Both Manuwai (knee) and Williams (biceps) suffered season-ending injuries in the 2008 season-opener at Tennessee and were placed on injured reserve. Third-year pro Uche Nwaneri was inserted into the lineup in 2008 and has started 16 of 28 career games. Nwaneri has the ability to play both guard and center and has seen time at both this season.

■ The club selected tackles Eugene Monroe (1st round) and Eben Britton (2nd round) in the draft and they became the first rookies to start at tackle on opening day in franchise history. Monroe, a left tackle, was the eighth overall pick after starting for three seasons at Virginia. Britton was the seventh offensive lineman taken overall and has the ability to play right and left tackle as well as guard.

■ The club added veteran Tra Thomas in free agency and he backs up Monroe at left tackle and sees action in short-yardage situations. Thomas, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, started 165 games in 11 seasons with Philadelphia.

■ Ninth-year veteran Kynan Forney was signed on Sept. 8 and he adds depth at guard. Forney has started 88 games at right guard the last eight seasons. Jordan Black has played in 56 games with 29 starts over five seasons and he can play multiple positions along the line.

DEFENSIVE LINE (9)

■ The Jaguars have a mix of veterans and youth along the defensive line. Two-time Pro Bowl selection John Henderson is in his eighth season with the club and he anchors the Jaguars defense.

Henderson has 26 career sacks in 112 games. Third-round pick Terrance Knighton started three seasons at Temple and he starts beside Henderson at tackle.

■ The group suffered a blow in the season-opener when ninth-year veteran Reggie Hayward was lost for the season with a leg injury. Hayward registered 39.5 career sacks.

■ The Jaguars added speed off the edge in the 2008 draft with first-round pick Derrick Harvey and second-round pick Quentin Groves. Harvey, the eighth overall pick, finished with 3.5 sacks as a rookie and a team-high 29 quarterback pressures. Groves, who recorded 26 career sacks at Auburn, finished with 2.5 sacks and 11 quarterback pressures in 2008.

■ Derek Landri added 20 pounds in the offseason and adds depth at tackle after playing in 31 games his first three seasons. Second-year pro Atiyah Ellison was signed by the Jaguars off San Francisco's practice squad on December 10.

■ The Jaguars added tackle Montavious Stanley in training camp and he has played in 20 games with six starts in three seasons. He recorded his first career sack last Sunday at Houston. Rookie defensive end Julius Williams was one of only two undrafted free agents to make the 53-man opening day roster. The Jaguars added third-year tackle Greg Peterson on Tuesday.

LINEBACKERS (7)

■ The Jaguars have three experienced players to head up the linebacker position. The outside is manned by sixth-year pro Daryl Smith and fourth-year pro Clint Ingram. Smith has started 77 of 79 career games and surpassed 100 tackles in four consecutive seasons. He ranks second on the team through three games with 32 tackles. He leads the team with two forced fumbles including one last week at Houston that he recovered in the end zone to seal the victory. Ingram has made 37 career starts including a career-high 12 in 2008.

■ Third-year pro Justin Durant starts in the middle after posting a career-high 113 tackles a year ago and he led the team with seven tackles for loss. He has led the team in tackles in each of the first three games, 14 at Indianapolis, 15 against Arizona and 10 at Houston. Fourth-year pro Brian Iwuh excels on special teams and adds depth in the middle. Iwuh has 44 special teams tackles in four seasons.

■ Fifth-year pro Adam Seward was signed on Aug. 24 after spending the past four seasons with Carolina. Russell Allen was one of two undrafted free agents to make the roster and he sees extensive action on special teams. The Jaguars signed second-year pro Bryan Smith on Monday off the St. Louis Rams practice squad

DEFENSIVE BACKS (11)

■ The secondary is led by seventh-year pro Rashean Mathis, regarded as one of the NFL's top cornerbacks. Mathis holds the franchise record with 26 career interceptions including one last Sunday at Houston. Mathis returned two interceptions for touchdowns in 2008.

■ The Jaguars moved up to select Derek Cox in the third round of this year's draft. Cox was a three-year starter at William & Mary, recording nine career interceptions, and he starts opposite Mathis. Cox recorded an interception off Peyton Manning in the season-opener on the Colts first drive and then recovered a fumble on their ensuing possession.

■ Second-year pro Tyron Brackenridge competes for time at cornerback after playing in 14 games with Kansas City the last two seasons. Brian Witherspoon earned a roster spot as a rookie free agent in 2008 when he served as the club's return specialist and saw limited action at cornerback. Fifth-year pro Scott Starks is also in the mix at cornerback and played 26 snaps in week two against Arizona.

■ The club has four experienced players at safety. 2007 first-round pick Reggie Nelson has recorded seven interceptions in 32 games at free safety. The Jaguars added fifth-year pro Sean Considine in free agency and he starts at strong safety. Considine spent the past four seasons with Philadelphia where he played in 46 games with 17 starts. He suffered a groin strain last Sunday at Houston and his status will be updated this week. Gerald Alexander, a second-round pick of Detroit in 2007, provides depth at safety and excels on special teams. Alexander played in 21 games with 17 starts with the Lions and was acquired via trade in June. He played a season-high 49 snaps last Sunday at Houston and finished with five tackles.

■ The Jaguars signed veteran safety Brian Russell on September 8 after he was released by Seattle on final cuts. Russell has played in 111 games with 94 starts for Minnesota, Cleveland, Seattle and the Jaguars. He started all 16 games the last two seasons with the Seahawks.

■ Rookie cornerback William Middleton was signed off Atlanta's practice squad on Sept. 21. Middleton was a fifth-round pick of the Falcons in this year's draft, the 138th selection overall. Rookie safety Courtney Greene was added to the 53-man on roster on Sept. 21 after being released on final cuts by Seattle. He was a seventh-round pick of the Seahawks in this year's draft.

KICKERS/SPECIALISTS (3)

■ Russ Purnell, a 37-year coaching veteran, is in his first season as the club's special teams coordinator after spending the past seven seasons with Indianapolis. Josh Scobee, a fifth-round pick by the Jaguars in 2004, is in his sixth season as the placekicker. Scobee has led the team in points the last five seasons and ranks second in team history with 489 points. In addition, Scobee holds the team-record with 77 career touchbacks.

■ 2007 fourth-round pick Adam Podlesh won the punting competition in the preseason with veteran Steve Weatherford. Podlesh, who missed the final five games of last season with a knee injury, has a 42.1 career average in 30 games.

■ Third-year pro Jeremy Cain won the long snapper job in the preseason. Cain has played in 20 career games since entering the NFL in 2004.

2009 SCHEDULE STORYLINES

■ Features four playoff teams from 2008 and six games against playoff teams - the Colts and Titans twice, as well as the Cardinals and Dolphins. The Jaguars have 10 games against teams that finished .500 or better in 2008, and three against division winners.

■ Three of the first four games are against AFC South opponents, including two on the road, and three of the first four games are against 2008 playoff teams.

■ Of the Jaguars' eight regular season road games, two will be played in stadiums with retractable roofs (Indianapolis, Houston). The roof was open at Indianapolis for the season-opener and closed last Sunday at Houston.

■ St. Louis will visit Jacksonville for the first time. The Rams are the only NFL team to never play a regular season game in Jacksonville.

■ The Jaguars will play two games on the west coast in 2009 with trips to Seattle and San Francisco. It marks only the second time in franchise history (2004) the club will have two road games against west coast opponents. It will be the first regular season game at San Francisco in franchise history.

RUNNING BACK MAURICE JONES-DREW

JONES-DREW IN STARRING ROLE: RB Maurice Jones-Drew serves as the lead running back in 2009 after sharing time with former RB Fred Taylor the previous three seasons. Jones-Drew, a second-round pick in 2006, has 587 career rushes for 2,815 yards and 38 touchdowns, 161 receptions for 1,479 yards and four touchdowns and 75 kickoff returns for 26.0 average.

JONES-DREW PRODUCES IN STARTING ROLE: Maurice Jones-Drew has started the first three games and averaged 117.7 yards from scrimmage, leading the team in rushing yards (282), touchdowns (4) and receptions (13).

■ Led the team with 123 yards from scrimmage at Indianapolis in the season-opener. He finished with 97 rushing yards on 21 carries and had a team-high five receptions for 26 yards.

■ He registered 119 rushing yards and scored three touchdowns last Sunday at Houston. He scored on a 61-yard run in the second quarter, the second-longest run of his career.

■ Has gone only three games without scoring a touchdown only once, the first three games of the 2007 season.

■ The 97 rushing yards at Indianapolis were the second-most by a Jaguar on opening day in team history (115, James Stewart at Chicago, 9/6/98).

■ Surpassed 4,000 career yards from scrimmage at Indianapolis on 9/13.

Jones-Drew recorded 20-plus carries for the seventh time in his career and second time this season last Sunday at Houston as he produced 119 yards on 23 carries. Here are his rushing totals in games with 20-plus carries:

ROOKIE JENNINGS LEARNING THE WAY: Seventh-round pick Rashad Jennings shares the same agent with Maurice Jones-Drew and the players spent quality time in the offseason training together. Prior to the NFL Combine in February, the players trained at Perfect Competition in Miami and they returned throughout the offseason after becoming teammates. Jennings started his career at Pittsburgh in 2005 before transferring to Liberty. He played in 31 games with Liberty and rushed for a Big South Conference record 3,633 yards on 633 attempts (5.7 avg.) with 42 touchdowns. He set a conference-record with 22 career 100-yard rushing games including 10 as a senior.

QUARTERBACK DAVID GARRARD

DAVID GARRARD TIDBITS

Quarterback David Garrard is in his third season as the starter after starting all 16 games in 2008. Garrard, a fourth-round pick in 2002, has played in 59 games with 49 starts over seven seasons and owns a 25-24 career record. His career totals include 911 of 1,500 passing for 10,290 yards with 53 touchdowns and 30 interceptions for a 84.7 passer rating. Here are additional notes:

- Recorded career-best passing numbers in 2008 with 335 completions on 535 attempts for 3,620 yards with 15 touchdowns and 13 interceptions. Garrard ranked third on the team with a career-high 73 rushes for 322 yards and two touchdowns. Garrard had a 60-plus completion percentage or higher in 11 of the 16 games including five games with a 70-plus completion percentage. He recorded 30 or more attempts in 11 of the last 13 games.
- Was the first Jaguars quarterback since Mark Brunell in 2000 to start all 16 games in a season.
- Led the Jaguars to two comeback wins in 2008. Garrard engineered the offense twice to set up game-winning field goals by Josh Scobee in both games.
- Garrard led the club to a 9-3 mark in 12 starts in 2007 and helped the club earn its first postseason win since 1999.
- Has thrown for multiple touchdowns in 15 career games including two touchdowns in week two against Arizona this season. The Jaguars own a 11-4 record in those games.
- Ranked third in franchise history for attempts (535) in a single season, second in completions (335) and third in passing yards (3,620).
- Has played against 26 different NFL teams. The only teams Garrard has never played against are Dallas, New Orleans, St. Louis, Seattle and Washington.
- Ranks second in franchise history in completions (911) and passing yards (10,290) and touchdown passes (53).
- Set the franchise single-season record for highest passer rating (102.2) and highest completion percentage (64.0) in 2007.
- Finished with the second lowest interception percentage in a season in 2007 for any quarterback in NFL history with 300+ attempts at 0.92 (3 interceptions in 325 attempts). The lowest was 0.90 by Steve DeBerg in 1990 (4 interceptions in 444 attempts).
- Holds the team record at eight consecutive games without throwing an interception.
- Recorded a 100-plus rating in a career-high seven games in 2007.

HOLT ON HIS GOALS: "My goal is always 90-plus catches, 1,300-plus yards and 10-plus touchdowns. That has been my goal for a number of years now and those goals won't change. You have to set them pretty high to give yourself something to strive for and to reach for. Will I reach those goals? Who knows? Do I have the potential to reach those goals? Absolutely. Will I be given those opportunities? I hope I will be given those opportunities. Hopefully the opportunities I will be given, hopefully I can come out and take full advantage of and help our football team win and be effective and be something you have to deal with on Sundays."

MARCEDES LEWIS LOOKS FOR BREAKOUT SEASON: Tight end Mercedes Lewis had a plan heading into the 2009 offseason; no more coast to coast trips to California. The former 2006 first-round pick stayed in Jacksonville in the offseason, getting extra work with quarterback David Garrard and working out under the direction of first-year strength and conditioning coach Luke Richesson. Lewis is coming off his most productive season as a pro, finishing 2008 with a career-high 41 receptions for 489 yards and two touchdowns. He has seven receptions for 103 yards including a 25-yard touchdown reception through three games.

Additional notes on Lewis include:

- Totaled 98 career receptions for 1,109 yards with six touchdowns.
- Needs two receptions to become the 12th player in franchise history with 100 receptions and the third tight end (Kyle Brady, 241; Pete Mitchell, 191).
- Finished with three receptions for 62 yards with a 25-yard touchdown catch in week two against Arizona.
- Has dropped eight pounds since last season.
- Was the first Jaguars tight end since Kyle Brady (43, 2002) to have 40-plus receptions in a season and had the most receiving yards by a tight end since 2000 (Brady, 729).
- Recorded a career-high six receptions for 55 yards on 12/18/08 against Indianapolis,
- Tied his career-high with 64 receiving yards on four receptions at Detroit on 11/9/08.
- Set his career-high of 64 yards at Denver on 10/12/08 which included a career-long 30-yard touchdown reception.

JAGUARS WELCOME BACK WILFORD: The Jaguars welcomed back Ernest Wilford on August 25 as he signed as a veteran free agent. Wilford, a fourth-round pick of the Jaguars in 2004, signed with Miami as an unrestricted free agent in 2008 and is making the transition from wide receiver to tight end. He ranks third in Jaguars history with 20 receptions of 25-plus yards and became the eighth player in franchise history with 2,000 career receiving yards last Sunday at Houston.

PLAYER NOTES

RASHEAN MATHIS LEADS SECONDARY: Jaguars cornerback and team captain Rashean Mathis has recorded a takeaway in two consecutive games including an interception last Sunday at Houston in the first quarter. Mathis recovered a fumble in week two against Arizona. Additional notes on Mathis:

- Mathis, who became the first Jaguars cornerback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in 2006, holds the franchise records with 26 career interceptions and three interceptions returned for touchdowns.
- Returned to the starting lineup after missing the final four games in 2008 with a knee injury. Despite missing four games, he tied for the team's lead with four interceptions and returned two of the interceptions for touchdowns.
- Grew up in Jacksonville and attended Englewood High School.
- Has started 93 games since being selected in the second round of the 2003 draft and has led the team in interceptions in four of the last five seasons.
- Picked off Peyton Manning on 9/21/08 at Indianapolis and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown, then intercepted Ben Roethlisberger against Pittsburgh on 10/5/08 on the opening possession and returned it 72 yards for the second-longest return in team history. He has recorded three of the four longest interception returns in franchise history.
- Was one of six NFL players to have two or more interception returns for touchdowns in 2008.
- Has recorded four two-interception games.

NFL INTERCEPTIONS LEADERS 2004-09

Cornerback Rashean Mathis is tied for fifth in the NFL from 2004-09 with 23 interceptions. He ranks tied for seventh with three interceptions returned for touchdowns.

COX MAKES QUICK IMPACT: Third-round pick Derek Cox wasted no time making an impact on the club's defense in his first NFL regular season game, recording two takeaways on the first two possessions at Indianapolis in the season-opener. After the Colts moved the ball to the Jaguars four-yard line on their opening drive, Cox intercepted Peyton Manning in the end zone. On the ensuing drive, Cox recovered a Joseph Addai fumble caused by Quentin Groves.

WILLIAM & MARY STANDS OUT ON KICKOFF WEEKEND:

There were only five players in the NFL to have two takeaways during week one of the 2009 season and three of the five had ties to William & Mary including Jaguars CB Derek Cox. Cox had an interception and fumble recovery and former William & Mary standout and current Saints S Darren Sharper had two interceptions. In addition, Eagles S Sheldon Brown (2 INTs) also had two takeaways. Brown plays for first-year Eagles defensive coordinator Sean McDermott who played for William & Mary from 1994-97. Cox and Sharper join Cardinals LS Mike Leach as the only current NFL players from William & Mary.

ANCHOR OF THE DEFENSE

Ninth-year defensive tackle John Henderson returns to anchor the Jaguars defense. Henderson, a two-time Pro Bowl selection, has played in 112 games with 108 starts since being selected in the first round of the 2002 draft. Additional notes on Henderson:

- Career totals include 516 tackles (390 solo), 26 sacks, four forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 41 passes defended and 37 tackles for loss.
- Has missed only three games in his career. He missed a game for the first time in his career at Denver on 9/16/07 with a head injury, snapping a streak of 82 consecutive games played.
- Played major role on defense that ranks sixth in the NFL from 2003-09, allowing 307.5 yards per game, and fifth in points allowed (19.0) during that span.
- Highest-drafted defensive lineman ever by the Jaguars.

5.	John Henderson, 2002-09	26.0

HARVEY READY FOR SECOND SEASON: Second-year defensive end Derrick Harvey had a full training camp under his belt in 2009, unlike his rookie season when he missed the first three preseason games with a contract holdout after being selected eighth overall. Harvey, 6-5, 281, played in the Jaguars final preseason game in 2008 and started nine of 16 games in the regular season. He led the team with 29 quarterback pressures and finished with 3.5 sacks. His nine starts were the second-most by a Jaguars defensive lineman in franchise history (John Henderson, 13, 2002). He concluded the season with two sacks at Baltimore on 12/28.

HAYWARD LOST FOR SEASON: Veteran defensive end Reggie Hayward was lost for the season after breaking his left leg in the season-opener at Indianapolis. Hayward, who has 39.5 career sacks, recorded his fourth career sack against Peyton Manning in the second quarter. He was injured on the Colts final play (fourth-and-one) with 2:06 remaining in the game.

"Reggie's a good man, a good player," Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio said. "We're going to miss Reggie. It's unfortunate he got his leg tied up there. He got pushed over a pile on that key fourth down stop and we got the ball back, and it's really a shame. He was appointed a captain. He'd really come back from that Achilles injury and was just beginning to round into shape, really feeling good about the kind of year he was going to be able to have for us. We'll miss Reggie. He's a good player."

MEESTER KEEPS PLUGGING ALONG

Center Brad Meester is the longest-tenured Jaguar on the roster. Meester was a second round pick in the 2000 draft by the Jaguars and joins G/OT Maurice Williams, DT John Henderson and QB David Garrard as the only players on the roster who were drafted by the Jaguars prior to 2003.

Meester ranks third in franchise history with 132 starts and holds the franchise record with 92 consecutive starts from 9/3/00 through 12/4/05. Here's the list of the top 10 most starts in franchise history.

10.	Keenan McCardell, 1996-2001	92

EARNING A JOB: Safety Gerald Alexander and cornerback Tyron Brackenridge were among several first-year Jaguars that made a strong impression in the preseason. Alexander, a second-round pick of Detroit in 2007, started 16 games for the Lions as a rookie before missing the majority of the 2008 campaign with a fractured vertebra. He was traded to the Jaguars on June 29. He intercepted Donovan McNabb in the preseason at Philadelphia on 8/27 and returned it 40 yards to set up a touchdown. In the preseason, Brackenridge finished with seven tackles, three special team tackles and forced a fumble on a kickoff that resulted in a touchdown. The second-year pro was originally signed as a rookie free agent by Kansas City in 2007 and played in 13 games with the Chiefs the last two seasons. He was signed by the Jets in February and the Jaguars claimed him off waivers in May.

IWUH FILLS IN NICELY: Fourth-year linebacker Brian Iwuh took advantage of his opportunities in the preseason, leading the team with 17 tackles. His primary role is on special teams but injuries at the linebacker position allowed him to see extensive action. He returned a fumble 92 yards for a touchdown against Philadelphia in week three of the preseason. The former Colorado standout scooped up a backwards pass from Donovan McNabb and raced untouched to the end zone. In the season-opener at Indianapolis, he finished with two tackles on six plays on defense and led the special teams unit with two tackles.

NEW AND IMPROVED MANUWAI BACK IN THE LINEUP: Vince Manuwai was back in his familiar spot at left guard in the pre-season for the first time since last year's season opener at Tennessee where he suffered a season-ending knee injury. Manuwai, 6-2, 333, lost more than 30 pounds over the past 11 months thanks to a better diet and workouts under Jaguars first-year strength and conditioning coach Luke Richesson.

EAGLES HAVE LANDED: The Jaguars signed two unrestricted free agents in the offseason and both played previously with the Philadelphia Eagles. Safety Sean Considine played in 46 games with 17 starts the past four seasons with the Eagles and also started two of five postseason games. Left tackle Tra Thomas was a mainstay on the Eagles offensive line for the past 11 seasons after being selected with the 11th overall pick in 1998. Thomas, 6-7, 316, has played in 168 games with 165 starts and was selected to three Pro Bowls. He ranks tied for third among active NFL players with 17 postseason starts (Jon Runyan, 21; Brian Dawkins, 18).

JAGUARS GO WITH TWO QBs: The Jaguars started the 2009 season with only two quarterbacks (David Garrard, Luke McCown) on their opening day roster for the third consecutive season and third time overall. The Jaguars were one of eight NFL teams to start the season with only two quarterbacks on their roster, joining Chicago, Green Bay, New England, New Orleans, New York Giants, Philadelphia and Washington).

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER: Jaguars quarterback David Garrard is one of 12 starting quarterbacks that was selected No. 90 overall or later in the NFL Draft. Garrard was a fourth round pick of the Jaguars in 2002, the 108th selection overall. Other starting quarterbacks drafted No. 90 or later include: Kurt Warner (Undrafted, Arizona), Trent Edwards (3rd round, Buffalo), Jake Delhomme (Undrafted, Carolina), Tony Romo (Undrafted, Dallas), Kyle Orton (4th round, Denver), Matt Schaub (3rd round, Houston), Matt Cassel (7th round, Kansas City), Tom Brady (6th round, New England), Marc Bulger (6th round, St. Louis), Shaun Hill (Undrafted, San Francisco), Matt Hasselbeck (6th round, Seattle).

JAGUARS WR SIMS-WALKER GOES BY LEGAL NAME: The NFL approved the request of Jaguars wide receiver Mike Sims-Walker to go by his legal name in 2009. His jersey, which previously just read Walker, reflects the change. Sims-Walker's father died of colon cancer in 2008.

'MAINE' MAN ON SPECIAL TEAMS: Fourth-year pro Montell Owens was a longshot to make the club's roster as a rookie free agent from Maine in 2006. Not only has he been a staple on the club's special teams ever since, he signed a contract extension in the offseason. Owens has played in 49 games and has 48 special teams tackles. He ranked second on the team in 2008 with 18 tackles and had two touchdowns. He made his first career reception on 9/21 at Indianapolis, a 10-yard catch that extended the game-winning drive. He scored his first career touchdown on a 41-yard run on 9/28 vs. Houston as a result of a fake-punt direct snap. On 11/2 at Cincinnati, he recovered a fumble on a kickoff and returned it 18 yards for a score.

PODLESH WINS PUNTER JOB: Adam Podlesh is in his third season as the club's punter after battling veteran Steve Weatherford for the job in the preseason. Podlesh missed the final five games of the 2008 season with a knee injury. He finished with a 46.8 average in the preseason with five of nine punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He has played in 30 games for the Jaguars since being selected in the fourth round of the 2007 draft and has a 42.1-yard average (36.9 net) on 112 punts with 30 downed inside the 20.

NEW LONG SNAPPER FOR JAGUARS: The Jaguars have a new long snapper in the regular season for the first time since 2001 as third-year pro Jeremy Cain outlasted veteran Joe Zelenka in the preseason. Cain has spent time with Chicago, Philadelphia, Tennessee and Washington and appeared in 20 games including three games this season He played in eight games with Chicago from 2004-05. After not playing in 2006, he was signed by Tennessee in 2007 and played in the final 10 games including the postseason for the Titans.

DEL RIO SELECTS TEAM CAPTAINS: Head coach Jack Del Rio selected the club's team captains prior to the season-opener and each player has a 'C' on his jersey. QB David Garrard, RB Maurice Jones-Drew, CB Rashean Mathis, FB Montell Owens and DE Reggie Hayward were named captains.

DE LA SALLE WELL-REPRESENTED: RB Maurice Jones-Drew and DT Derek Landri are two of five current NFL players that played at De La Salle High School in Concord, California. Landri played both offense and defensive line while Jones-Drew starred at running back and defensive back. The duo never lost a high school game, winning a national high school record 125 consecutive games. Other NFL players from De La Salle include QB Matt Gutierrez (Kansas City), LB D.J. Williams (Denver) and WR Demetrius Williams (Baltimore).

GOAL IS POSTSEASON: The Jaguars look to return to postseason play in 2009 and can look no further than last year for inspiration. Seven teams made the playoffs in 2008 that were not in the postseason the year before. It marked the 13th consecutive season in which at least five teams (out of 12) accomplished the feat. The Jaguars were one of six teams that made the playoffs in 2007 that were not in the postseason the year before. Here are the teams that made the postseason the past 13 years and were not in the year before:

JAGUARS OFF THE FIELD

WILLIAM & MARY WELL-REPRESENTED: Jaguars third-round pick Derek Cox has moved on to the NFL but he doesn't have to entirely leave his days at William & Mary behind. Jaguars linebackers coach Mark Duffner played football at William & Mary and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990. The two first met on Cox's visit to Jacksonville prior to the draft. Besides Duffner's football accomplishments, Cox said he is more popular for something else.

"He is the weightlifting champion," Cox said.

Duffner holds the school record at 1,170 pounds (385 bench press; 285 powerclean; 500 deadlift).

PRIDE OF ALBANY: The city of Albany sits in the southwestern part of Georgia with a population of a little over 160,000. There are four current NFL players that grew up in Albany with two on the Jaguars roster in linebacker Daryl Smith and defensive tackle Montavious Stanley. Smith attended Dougherty High School while Stanley played at nearby Westover High School. Former Super Bowl MVP and current Seattle Seahawks wide receiver Deion Branch and Green Bay Packers running back Kregg Lumpkin are from the area.

GOLF FOR FUN, KICK FOR DOUGH: Sixth-year pro Josh Scobee is an avid golfer and had quite an offseason away from the football field. Scobee started his journey by scoring tickets to the Masters in April where he had the opportunity to get up close and personal with the world's best golfers. He took it one step further in May when served as a marshal escort for The Players at TPC Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra. His duties included walking with Tiger Woods for all four of his rounds.

LINEBACKERS JOIN FORCES: Several of the club's linebackers established a program in the offseason in conjunction with Wolfson Children's Hospital. Daryl Smith, Clint Ingram, Justin Durant and Brian Iwuh made two visits a month to the hospital in the offseason and will begin again in September. The players stopped by rooms, signed autographs and distributed gifts to the patients on their visits.

WORKING VACATION: Running back Maurice Jones-Drew was one of 24 current or former NFL players that attended the NFL Broadcast Boot Camp on June 22-25 at NFL Films in Mt. Laurel, New Jersey. The camp was organized by the NFL Broadcasting Department and covered a wide range of topics with instructors from all of the NFL's broadcasting partners - CBS, ESPN, FOX, NBC, NFL Network, Sirius Satellite Radio, Westwood One Radio, plus local radio and TV stations.

JAGUARS TRAINER FINISHES TRIATHLON IN AUSTRIA:

Jaguars head athletic trainer/physical therapist Mike Ryan participated in the Karnten Ironman Triathlon Austria during the offseason in Klagenfurt. Ryan crossed the finish line in 10:36:47, ranking 489th out of 2,400 participants. An Ironman Triathlon is 140 miles worth of swimming, biking and running. Athletes from 49 nations took part in the Austria event. Ryan started the race with a four-mile swim in 1:09:51 before biking 112 miles in 5:29:02 and concluded the race with a 26.2 mile run in 3:48:23. The 22-year NFL veteran has completed six Ironman Triathlons. Along with Austria, he has competed in Hawaii (1994), New Zealand (1996), Canary Island (1998), Brazil (2000) and Idaho (2004). In addition, he has competed in the Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon and the 2002 World Championship Duathlon.

JONES-DREW FEATURED IN ESPN COMMERCIAL: Running back Maurice Jones-Drew is featured in espn.com's new TV spot "Fantasy Football." Jones-Drew was joined by NFL players Clinton Portis (Washington), Brandon Jacobs (N.Y. Giants), Tony Gonzalez (Atlanta), Antonio Gates (San Diego), Dallas Clark (Indianapolis), Mason Crosby (Green Bay), Rob Bironas (Tennessee) and Adam Vinatieri (Indianapolis).

ROSTER TIDBITS

- Head coach Jack Del Rio played baseball at Hayward High School with current Seattle Mariners manager Don Wakamatsu.
- LS Jeremy Cain attended St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Fort Lauderdale, the same school that produced former NFL players Brian Piccolo, Stefan Humphries, and Michael Irvin.
- S Sean Considine started his career as a walk-on at Iowa and earned a scholarship as a sophomore in 2002.
- LB Justin Durant was teammates with Pittsburgh Steelers linebacker Lawrence Timmons at Wilson High School in Florence, South Carolina. Timmons was the 15th overall pick in the 2007 draft.
- DT Atiyah Ellison had his jersey retired by Parkway South High School in 2006. Ellison was a standout basketball and football player and set the school shot put record.
- DE Derrick Harvey did not play organized football until his junior year at Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Maryland.
- WR Torry Holt is the only player on the Jaguars roster who has won a Super Bowl as he accomplished the feat in 1999 with the St. Louis Rams.
- TE Mercedes Lewis was a standout basketball and football player at Long Beach Poly High School, the same school that produced actress Cameron Diaz, rapper Snoop Dogg, actor Carl Weathers and athletes Willie McGinest (NFL), Deshaun Jackson (NFL), Winston Justice (NFL), Chase Utley (MLB) and Milton Bradley (MLB).
- S Reggie Nelson's mother, Mary Lakes, lost her battle with breast cancer in 2006. Nelson hosted the inaugural Mary Lakes Invitational Bowl Against Breast Cancer in 2009 to benefit the North Florida Susan G. Komen For the Cure.
- FB Montell Owens is an accomplished trumpet player and teamed up with 12 area high school students in 2009 to form the St. Johns River City High School Jazz All-Starts and the group performed at the Jazz Festival in downtown Jacksonville.
- K Josh Scobee attended Longview High School in Texas, the same school that produced actor Matthew McConaughey.
- OT Maurice Williams took classes at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the offseason. Williams was one of 95 players enrolled in the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program, an initiative designed to assist players for their post-playing careers. The program is a joint partnership between the NFL, the NFLPA and the country's most elite business schools. In 2007, Williams attended classes at the Stanford Graduate School of Business as part of the program.
- First-round pick Eugene Monroe (sociology) and third-round picks Terrance Knighton (criminal justice), Derek Cox (marketing) received their degrees on May 17.
- Cox served as President of the SAAC (Student Athletic Advisory Council) during the 2008-09 season at William & Mary.
- Fifth-round choice Jarett Dillard graduated in May of 2008 with a degree in political science from Rice. Dillard graduated first in his class at Sam Houston High School in San Antonio and was a member of the National Honor Roll Society.
- Abbie Britton, mother of second-round pick Eben Britton, is a Columbia University graduate and journalist.
- Kynan Forney's cousin, Larry Allen, was a 11-time Pro Bowl guard with the Dallas Cowboys and San Francisco 49ers.
- DE Derrick Harvey is one of five current NFL players from Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Maryland. He joins DE Derrick Burgess (Oakland), DE Will Davis (Arizona), OT Jared Gaither (Baltimore) and WR Derrick Williams (Detroit).
